

Organisation	Project	Amount Approved	Project Summary
Northland
Far North REAP Inc. Soc.	Te Roopu Whai Pukenga	$97,286	To implement the Computers in Homes programme to 50 families in the Far North in partnership with schools.
Motatau Marae Trustees	Te Kanohi o te Ao	$110,000	Builds on last year's project of creation of an ICT centre and introduces a multi media suite, technical training course, creation of digital stories, develop economic development opportunities, and further community programmes. Strong links to school's ICT curriculum.
Ngatiwai Trust Board	Ngatiwai Communications Project	$307,750	Builds on 2005/06 project extending to additional 3 marae in the Ngatiwai rohe, establishing ICT hubs and running a range of programmes.
One Double Five Whare Roopu Community House Trust	Cyber Whare Network Project (155)	$19,446	Provides additional training programmes at the Cyber Whare and a legal aid service via conferencing.
Tiaho Trust	Empowerment Online	$107,700	Provide ICT accessibility advice and training to enable ICT community centres to be accessible for people with disabilities. Provides adaptive technology in community access points.
The Blue Orb Charitable Trust	This is the Place - Ko Tenei te Wahi	$198,500	Develop an online database about Northland's place names, including unofficial and historic versions, descriptions and community based contributions.

Auckland
Auckland Art Gallery Toi o Tamaki	Lindauer Māori Portraits and Visitors Book online project	$168,520	Digitise material from the Lindauer portraits of Māori, the historical visitors book and whākapapa information provided by descendants of the portrait sitters. Material housed in various collections will be brought together in this project and put on the website. Includes Māori - English translations.
Auckland Regional Migrant Services Charitable Trust	Settlement.Org.NZ - creating a navigation tool for new Aucklanders	$249,830	Create a portal with specialist settlement information and links targeted to new and potential settlers, students and returning kiwis. Includes settlement guide, how to's, and personal planning tool.
Auckland War Memorial Museum	Natural History collections Online	$169,465	Three year project to digitise a collection of natural history specimens online. Training component for staff.
AUT University	Web-raising at Manurewa	$5,000	Conduct three workshops for nine participants to provide digital training and web-related skills at the Manurewa marae. Delivering training and develop content for the marae website.
Computer Clubhouse Trust	The Clover Park Community Computer Clubhouse Project	$563,112	Establish a permanent community ICT clubhouse building and programmes including training for trainers, digital storytelling, from clubhouse to career, ICT training.
Cycling Advocates' Network	CAN Website Upgrade	$88,905	Upgrade of the website to improve the accessibility and implement a Content Management System (CMS). There is a training component for volunteers.
ECPAT NZ Inc	www.reportchildporn.org.nz- Child Pornography Hotline & Blocking Project -Phase 2	$47,000	To advocate to further ISPs the use of Hotline and Blocking software and run a campaign targeted to 12-18 year olds to report child pornography sites using www.reportchildporn.org.nz

Enterprise Waitakere	Waitakere ICT Capability Audit	$106,500	An ICT capability audit of Waitakere for NFPs, SMEs and secondary schools. Development of an ICT self-assessment tool.
Internet Safety Group Incorporated	The Online Cybersafety Toolkit	$265,200	Create online toolkit targeted to SMEs and community groups about cybersafety. Comprises ICT security risk self-analysis, policies and procedures and education programme. There is a community space included.
Internet Safety Group Incorporated	Net Basics 2.0	$214,000	Expand the current Net basics information and website, to target home computer users through a Computer WOF and Defensive Driver (toolkit) concept and an awareness raising campaign. Particular emphasis for those with low, or no, ICT capability.
Kelston Deaf Education Centre	New Zealand Sign Language at a distance - a Telecommunication Initiative	$123,720	Implement Computers in Homes programmes to 22 families. Differs from standard programme in that utilises video-conferencing to link families with their children, who reside in Kelston, through sign language.
Lee Wragge Ltd	Waiheke Sustainability- a Weedbusters - Community Conservation Project	$4,000	The project uses ICT to record and map noxious weeds and provides advice on their eradication. Promotes the use of ICT for this and other environmental projects by showcasing its capabilities at community meetings and forums. Interactive component also.
Moving Image Centre Charitable Trust	Community Mobile Storytelling Lab	$129,085	Mobile teaching lab for digital storytelling by communities in their communities who face barriers to attending mainstream training. Monthly workshops, 6 - 10 participants each.

New Zealand Chinese Assn. (Auckland Branch) Inc.	Chinese Online Communities	$70,000	Brings together formal content held in libraries, and informal content community created together in one online space to tell the stories behind the headlines from the Chinese community perspective. Community will create digital stories. There is also an interactive discussion facility.
Royal NZ Foundation of the Blind	Adaptive Technology - Equal Access to Information	$100,000	Offers satellite classes, distance learning and home based tuition using adaptive technology to assist blind and visually impaired.
Royal NZ Foundation of the Blind	Reading Heritage Through Sound: New Zealand DAISY Books	$82,278	To convert 64 culturally significant NZ texts to the international DAISY standard book format with synchronised text images and audio for access for print disabled readers. Develops tools and processes to generate synthetic speech for NZ English and Te Reo Māori.
Royal NZ Foundation of the Blind	DAISY Textbook Pilot Study	$74,449	To convert school curricula texts into digital talking books to the international DAISY standard and tailoring it to the individuals needs. Pilot with 12 students. Evaluate with the possibility of extending to include more students.
Storylines Children's Literature Charitable Trust of NZ	Literature Live	$38,750	Increase functionality of website for video viewing and downloading of 10 videos about the lives and work of New Zealand writers and illustrators of books for 5-12 year olds.
Telework New Zealand	Telework Promotion Pilot	$55,000	Research and promote teleworking. Intends to encourage greater uptake of ICT. Will be piloted in Hamilton and Tauranga. Develops online resources e.g. case studies, policy templates. Support provided through advice workshops and promotional events.

The New Zealand TelePaediatric Society	The Community Access Project	$140,000	Expand video conferencing networks to further community organisations and install Codian Store and Forward technology which enables video information to be accessible by a database. Training for community staff included. The network enables access for chronically ill children to specialists and support groups.
The Waitakere Online Editorial Board	Waitakere Online Site Hosting	$5,000	Develop the online portal to include a database local community groups services and businesses, promotion of e-democracy, and civil participation. Includes content creation tools and training workshops.
Veritas Scripta Charitable Trust	Gold Tick SEO Training	$45,000	Develop online training resources targeted to NFPs about search engine optimisation so that NFPs can create search engine friendly websites. Also includes associated seminars.
Youthlaw Tino Rangatiratanga Taitamariki Inc	Training Advocates for Young People (An Advocacy Training Programme for Adults Working with Young People)	$94,810	Builds a youth advocacy training programme includes resources, manuals, videos, discussion boards, links and surveys on the youthlaw website.
Waikato
Coromandel Independent Living Trust	Upper Coromandel ICT Link	$99,280	Set up two ICT learning centres (Coromandel and Colville). Training programmes targeted to youth. Digital stories. Teleworking skills. Recycled computer project.

Bay of Plenty
Bay of Plenty Polytechnic	Smart People: empowering people in local communities to benefit from ICT	$158,000	Re-locatable computer lab and bus, 20 networked workstations with internet connection, to provide free ICT training for adults in BOP. Digital storytelling is also included.
Poutiri Charitable Trust	Community Technology	$251,000	11 learning centres; Training and support (including roving trainer); Development of a web portal.
Rotorua Community ICT Trust	Rotorua E-Rider Project	$50,000	Implements an e-rider to mentor and support local community organisations as they develop confidence and capability with ICT. Project will inform a needs assessment contributing to the wider ICT strategy for Rotorua.
Gisborne
Gisborne District Council	Computers in Homes (Gisborne Rural)	$265,579	Implement Computers in Homes programme to 150 families in rural Gisborne areas with 10 schools. Extends current urban project (current CPF project).
Te Runanga o Ngati Porou	Ngati Porou East Coast e-Learning Communities	$449,013	Implement Computer in Homes programme to 250 families with 15 schools and one Kōhanga Reo on the East Coast.
Hawke's Bay
Wairoa District Council	Computers in Homes (Wairoa)	$404,718	Computers in Homes programme to 250 families in Wairoa with 14 participating schools.

Taranaki
Bishop's Action Foundation	Community Sector ICT Capacity Building		$82,088	Provide a community ICT advisor who will assist and train NFP organisations on a one-to-one basis to develop high quality ICT solutions through needs assessment, training, and resource options. A self assessment and planning tool will be developed for future use.
Friends of the Park Inc.	The Pukekura Park Portal of TERRAIN		$101,120	Develop a portal for information relating to the Pukekura Park with interactive services based upon GIS data. Community groups to contribute information. Training in the use of ICT and GIS data.
Te Reo o Taranaki Charitable Trust	Te Pūtē Rautiriata o Taranaki reo		$449,300	Preserve and capture Taranaki Māori language through a digital archive system and training end users. Project will use Kete software (developed through a CPF project 2005/06).
Western Institute of Technology at Taranaki (WITT)	Digital Media Art Education Prototype		$4,960	Create online learning resources about technology based arts practice with input from artists.

Wellington
Horowhenua Library Trust	Kete Version 1.0		$97,720	Make Kete software available for download and installation for all and establish an ongoing online Kete community of users and developers. Creates training materials to assist in the customisation and use of Kete.
Masterton District Council	Image Wairarapa (Development of the foundation layer)		$85,050	To digitise collections from the Wairarapa Archive Museum of Art and History and Library, using Matapihi and Dublin Core standards. Training for volunteers will be provided.
New Zealand Association of Adolescent Health and Development	Youth Info- Connecting people who work with young people		$5,000	Add functionality to website to provide a discussion forum for youth workers focusing on health issues.
New Zealand Association of Citizens Advice Bureaux	Citizens Advice Bureaux (CAB) Digital Strategy		$1,275,011	Establish a database network throughout New Zealand's CABs (91). Also accessible through the web. The project pilots computer kiosks with access to e-govt services. CAB staff will assist clients.
New Zealand Federation of Voluntary Organisations	Community Information Management System - CIMS		$128,000	Design and develop technology platform, that allows for communication and information sharing for voluntary and community sector groups (email, bulletins, newsletters, information sharing etc).
New Zealand Film Archive Nga Kaitiaki o Nga Taonga Whitiahua	Medianet Research and Development Project		$185,600	Create a store of digital video files to be accessible through a database via a network of secure servers locally installed at partner organisations. Includes software development.
NZ Rehabilitation Assn. Inc. (NZRA)	Rehabilitation in NZ- Online Community Forum & Resource Network		$32,556	Redevelop the current website to enable access for people with disabilities. Provision of new content about rehabilitation services. Project also develops training resources for content contributors, and enables interaction between rehabilitation professionals.

Porirua City Community IT Educational Trust	Computers in Homes (Porirua)	$246,131	Computers in Homes programme for 150 families in Porirua City.
Porirua City Council	Digital Porirua Hub	$305,250	Four aspects: Technology planning and technical support; create a city portal; establish ICT learning strategy; implement four community access points (centres).
Prison Fellowship New Zealand	Rethinking Crime and Punishment - Website Upgrade	$40,000	Two year project to develop a website engaging the public in discussion about crime and punishment.
Te Whaingā Aronui The Humanities Trust of Aotearoa New Zealand	Humanities research network- building capability with Creative Commons	$59,000	Establish a creative commons licence site for New Zealand. This facility allows content to be freely shared and re-used while protecting the intellectual property rights of the content creator.
The Open Polytechnic of New Zealand	The People's Times Project	$200,000	Build a platform and learning management system for community groups. Online ICT training pack with support seminars. Moodle. Noticeboard includes interactive features and allows web presence for participants.
Wellington City Council	The Wellington Loop	$413,663	Pilot a range of projects through CityLink fibre infrastructure e.g. Moodle, e-learning, collaborative library system, high speed internet access via KAREN, web 2.0 social software, community workshops. Partnering with six schools.
Wellington Region 2020 Communications Trust	Secret Level	$40,310	Creates an ICT hub at the Secret Level Youth Centre, provides access to ICT under the supervision of volunteer staff. Intended use for homework, CVs, art, access to health information. Trains centre staff.

Nelson / Marlborough
Nelson City Council	Top of the South Stories: Te Tau Ihu o te Waka a Maui	$99,971	Develop a website portal on the history, culture and stories of the Nelson-Marlborough region. Website will house formal content which will be added to by the community with their stories. Links to Matapihi and Te Ara will be available. Includes training workshops for the public.
Canterbury
Canterbury Development Corporation	The Community Chest (TC2)	$90,500	Develops an online interactive training tool targeted to NFPs professional development programmes, including fundraising, financial management and governance.
Canterbury Communications Trust	Canterbury Public Issues Forum	$21,000	Establish a public issues forum in Canterbury using a model developed by E-democracy.org which has been used successfully in the USA and UK.
Governor's Bay Community Association	Governor's Bay Community Website	$1,648	Build a website for the Governor's Bay community groups and business detailing community services and events.
The National Post-Secondary Education Disability Network, NZ, Inc.	Alternative Formats, Accessible Formats: supporting print disabled students	$5,000	Conduct a training workshop for 10 tertiary staff to teach them how to prepare digital formats using DAISY standard for blind and visually impaired students.
Otago
Clutha Agricultural Development Board Inc.	Seminars and action plans to encourage the practical uses of computers for farmers and farm workers	$71,840	Develop and deliver ICT training courses (PUFF practical uses for farmers). Project utilises the existing ICT facilities in rural schools. 300 participants.
Dunedin Public Libraries	Otago Southland Regional Training Initiative	$82,500	Deliver training for the trainers programme to community leaders in use of EPIC and other content and searching skills.

Kaitangata and Districts Promotions Ltd	Kaitangata- A living history	$24,689	Record and digitise local stories. An element of training for primary school training to be led by an UPLIFT trainer.
New Zealand Archaeological Association Inc	Digital Site Recording Scheme	$469,176	Upgrading current website to create a searchable national database digital site recording system bringing together information held on current database and paper based systems. Database aims to support Historical Places Act 1993.
Southland
Western Southland Promotions Assn. Inc.	Western Southland: Podzone Country	$66,954	Provide podcast functionality to website and train 12 community members in production of podcast so they can be trainers for another 24 podcasts.