

Schedule of Grants Awarded 2009

Project Grants
Rebecca McAllum	$4000	To work as an intern in the Human Rights Department of the Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe.
National Consultative Committee on Disarmament	$2500	To produce a report containing papers presented at the conference, Eliminating Nuclear Weapons - No Longer the Impossible Dream, to update the NCCD website and to make the report available on the website.
International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War (New Zealand Branch)	$3000	To prevent injury and suffering from firearms violence in Papua New Guinea by advocating small arms control policy reform.
Lopdell House Gallery	$2150	To put towards the costs of designing, publishing and marketing the book written by Lopdell House Gallery in collaboration with Trish Gribben, Blast! Pat Hanly the Painter and his Protests and will host an exhibition.
Oxfam New Zealand	$10,000	To support the education component of the work of the Coalition to Stop Gun Violence Papua New Guinea.
Akane Sandom	$1500	To attend the World Conference Against Atomic and Hydrogen Bombs in Japan as the Peace Council's youth representative.
Treasa Dunworth	$3000	To assist with accommodation costs during the applicant's visiting fellowship to Oxford Institute For Ethics, Law and Armed Conflict, Oxford University, to study the role of civil society in disarmament.
Forum of the Christian Left	$1000	To host Friar John Dear, Jesuit Priest, Nobel Peace Prize nominee and peace activist for a speaking tour of NZ in October 2009.
Claudia Pond Eyley	$3118	To distribute the documentary film "Kit & Maynie - Tea, Scones and Nuclear Disarmament" to 500 schools and libraries throughout New Zealand.

Earthwise Radio Charitable Trust	$950	To research and broadcast a weekly half hour community radio programme that features interviews with local, visiting or overseas experts and advocates of peace, justice, environment and/or conservation issues.
Robbie Shilliam/ Research Trust of Victoria University	$2465	To investigate the connections between the Pacific People's Anti-Nuclear Action Committee, based in New Zealand, and the wider regional campaign for a nuclear free and independent Pacific.
Aotearoa New Zealand Cluster Munition Coalition	$5000	To produce a 10-12 minute film about how New Zealand contributed to the international effort to ban cluster bombs.
Radio Bridge International	$1050	To produce a monthly radio programme on Plains FM 96.9 community radio that aims to foster peace, educate and inspire youth and promote peace initiatives in New Zealand and overseas.
United Nations Youth Association of New Zealand	$11,350	To organise a national event for high school students. The conference will replicate the workings of the United Nations in which each student is assigned a country to represent as a 'delegate'.
World Peace March Aotearoa - New Zealand	$402	To assist with production costs of 500 copies of a brochure for the launch of the Auckland Peace Heritage Walk, which was held on Sunday 27 September and for the costs of reprints.