

Schedule of approved grants from first PADET 2010 funding round

| Applicant | Project summary | Amount approved |
|--|---|-----------------|
| Aotearoa New Zealand Peace and Conflict Studies Centre Trust | To run a workshop 'Education for Peace: Looking Back to Move Forward' involving peace education providers in New Zealand early childhood, primary and secondary schools. | $10,000 |
| National Centre for Peace and Conflict | To convene a conference at Parliament to develop innovative thinking on New Zealand's role in peace building. | $5,000 |
| Lopdell House Gallery | To distribute copies of 'Blast! Pat Hanly the Painter and his Protests' to primary schools in New Zealand. | $13,000 |
| National Consultative Committee on Disarmament | To support member organisations by holding regular meetings with their representatives, preparing and distributing Occasional Papers and organising briefing sessions seminars and conferences on major issues. | $3,750 |
| Natasha Lewis | To participate in an internship at New Zealand's Permanent Mission to the United Nations, and attend the UNESCO Global Intergenerational Human Rights Leadership Training Forum. | $4,909 |
| Ali Shariat | To contribute to costs associated with an internship in Tehran, Iran, working in the communications unit of the United Nations Development Programme. | $5,000 |