Subject: Explanations concerning your request for $51,164.40!

Dear [Name],

17.06.2014

You have certainly heard of us either on the radio or on TV, or you’ve read about us in the “financial” section of your newspaper. The trust company Finkelnstein & Partner is an international company specialised in the correct and legal transfer of important sums of money as well as for the payment of dividends, winnings or inheritances.

We have been assigned today by our principal client, a big group of luxury consumables, to write to you. This group of international renown (which doesn’t wish its name to be given before the end of the formalities) is well known by specialists in its domain and by its commercial partners, for its extraordinary social commitments.

The Management Committee of the group organises, at the end of each financial year, the distribution of winnings exclusively reserved for a number of selected clients, who must conform to a number of conditions. Part of the particular philosophy of the company is that a part of company benefits should be given to people who haven’t been treated kindly by life during the past years.

But I prefer to get to the subject of this letter straight away. I have the great pleasure to inform you that you’re on top of the list of the happy beneficiaries. You, [Name], specifically, it’s the sum of $51,164.40!

Once again in black and white:
$51,164.40 are ready for you,
It’s undeniable!

You are perhaps a bit surprised by this rather complicated figure. Let me explain the reason: the payment of the sum is always paid in the currency of the person to benefit from it, by cheque or by bank transfer. By using the actual conversion rates, this makes the sum of $51,164.40.

Let me explain briefly what’s going to happen now:

As it’s a very big sum of money, we must take the necessary precautions as we can’t send this sum before having checked your personal data. As, not only are we obliged to do this with regards to our principal client, but also with regards to law and justice so that the legal procedure of the payment of the cheque and the remittance to the legitimate beneficiary be honoured!

Consequently and in order to check out your data, I’ve prepared an official request form for you which is enclosed with this letter. This document enables you to make the request for the sum of $51,164.40.

Please proceed in the following manner:

1. Fill in your request form carefully while making sure that it’s complete and stick the identification sticker in the right place. This is of major importance (in case of missing information, no double checking of your data will be possible and your winnings would be lost).

2. Send us your request form, after having checked carefully the information given, in the reply envelope and as quickly as possible, so that we can, after a final checking and approval of your data, proceed in paying you the $51,164.40 by cheque or by bank transfer.

Please read the verso!
Another important information: Please make sure that you sign the form. Without your signature, the request form cannot be validated. May I congratulate you once again in the name of my client and all the staff of Finkelstein & Partner! This time, luck hasn’t forgotten you! You can look forward to $51,164.40!

But for sure, you must first of all assimilate this good news. All the same, in proof of its truth, I’m enclosing the letter from our client. Everything is confirmed.

I’ve added below the list of the beneficiaries. You can see you’re on the top of the list. The best thing to do is to request your cheque right now as, if you don’t reply, Mrs. Jacob will be top of the list and will receive the money instead of you. I’m sure you wouldn’t like that to happen?

Yours sincerely,

Isaac Finkelstein,
President and owner of Finkelstein & Partner

P.S.: It’s very important that you fill in quickly and correctly the request form for your cheque and send it back as soon as possible, so that we can send you your cheque and so that you don’t lose your top place on the list!

Social commitment in times of crisis!
The Group remits again this year nearly $51,000.00 to clients in difficult financial situations!

February 2013

The big group proves this year again that economical success should not be at the expense of customers. Each year, this renowned group leaves part of its profits to underprivileged people, strictly selected by the Social Committee of the Management. This year, Mrs Alice Graeber, aged 67, pensioned off was the lucky beneficiary! She was on the top of the list of the selected persons and she was able, a few days later, to win the sum of $50,724.00! She told the journalists who questioned her that this money would allow her to go on a holiday and pay off her debts.

We would like more companies to make this choice of social commitment. Who will be next year’s beneficiary?

The "Midas Guarantee of Winnings": The "Ring of Midas" is not only a valuable gold jewel made by a goldsmith, but also the key to infinite wealth!

Those who can only see this ring will admire it... but those who possess it and who know its secret, will have money in abundance forever!

"I already knew that Midas was the king of gold in Greek mythology but, when the letter from Finkelstein & Partner arrived in my postbox, I would never have dared to imagine... I looked scrupulously at its secrets and a few days later, I'd already won the fantastic sum of $62,000.00. And that was only the beginning. Just like in past years when bad luck seemed to be following me around, then all of a sudden good luck was with me! Since then, I follow exactly the instructions and the method which had been sent to me with the Ring of Midas and money problems have become something inexistent. I need, more than anything, advice to know how to spend all this money! A real golden opportunity. I thank God for this present!"

"What a load of rubbish! This is what I first said to myself. But what did I have to lose? I wanted the cheque which was announced for me and I thought that if I won some money, I could ask for the ring at the same time. This couldn't be bad! And everything went very quickly! The cheque arrived several days later with the Ring of Midas along with the instructions especially issued for me on how to use it. Full of joy thanks to my winning cheque, I tried out the ring and its secret method straight away. And you can't imagine my surprise: the winnings of $26,000.00 which had already made me happy were multiplied by four in just two months! This year, my wife and I have a life like nothing before. We buy everything we want, we go on holiday several times a year and we've even bought an apartment for our daughter for her 18th birthday! Today, we're several times a millionaire... only, we never talk about it so as not to awake jealousy. This ring has changed our lives. THANK YOU!"

Take your chance! You're taking no risk! If the "Ring of Midas" doesn't bring you the same luck, your winnings will be reimbursed down to the last penny!
